In Memoriam

It is with the deepest feeling that we express our sorrow for the passing of Bob Kominsk. He was looked up to as one of the most outstanding seniors. His many friends included the faculty and student body alike.

Central High wishes to pay this tribute to his memory and extend its deepest sympathy to his family and friends.

To the delightful informality of youth with its effervescent spirit of mirth---that likeable quality so characteristic of high school students ---this yearbook is dedicated.

Throughout these pages we have striven to grasp and accurately portray merry youth in all its aspects. May this yearbook be reminiscent of the pleasant memories of this year.

Mr. Reed

IT is indeed gratifying to again merit a page in this splendid year-book of 1938. We feel that the excellent quality of this "Mirror" exemplifies the sterling character of our entire student body. As administrative directors of education in Lima we have put forth every effort to give our youth superior educational opportunities. In a strict sense of the word, we could not realize this desire within the realms of our own effort. True, we have been able to provide material equipment, an excellent faculty, and other educational essentials of a tangible nature, but all of these are to no avail without your ambition to take advantage of them. It is after all, only through the strenuous work of your student body and your wholesome cooperative attitude that we have been able to attain our ambition of maintaining a high quality of education at Central High School.

This book is indicative of a span of years during which you have made your greatest strides of progress. How different it appears from a similar record of your first year in school. The contest cannot keep from revealing the magnitude of your development. It is with a great deal of pride that we shall scan the pages of this year-book, which is after all your contribution to the many pages of history, already written, at Central High.

May we leave this thought with you in regard to your future. It is our desire that ten years hence, the citizenry of Lima may be as proud of you as they are at the present moment. We have a deep feeling that such will be the case, providing the honest effort, moral courage, and spiritual background that have come to be yours at Central High School remain with you as a guiding incentive in your life.

—J. McLEAN REED, Superintendent

School Board

Mr. Gantz Mr. Derbyshire Dr. Wiseley Mr. Pool Mr. Neiswander

Mr. Leach Mr. Romaker

IN asking me to write a word for your Annual, you honor me. I appreciate and thank you for the opportunity.

To you and to the student body whom you represent, I would like to make the following statement: The faculty and school authorities of your school hope that in years to come you will look back upon the time you put in Central High School as a time when you laid the foundation of your structure of knowledge and culture. We hope you will have no regrets. But most of all we hope that you will have acquired here the ability to think; to think clearly, soberly, and without prejudice. And then, as you encounter the problems which you are certain to meet—and they will be hard and many—you will be able to take your stand with courage; with a courage that has that moral quality which feels the presence of a sustaining force; without heat, without malice, but with such confidence that the forces of error cannot prevail against you.

—H. W. LEACH, PRINCIPAL

To be members of the student body of a modern high school is a great privilege and a wonderful opportunity for young people of high school age. That the pupils in Central High School recognize this fact is shown each year by the fine attitude of the large majority enrolled here.

The many pursuits in which pupils participate, in their regular program of studies and in the numerous extra-curricular activities, reflect their eagerness for the school life in Central. We find in the Weekly and Annual Mirrors many of these true reflections.

It is to the Annual Mirror that it is my honor to address these few remarks concerning the students of Central High School. In the years to come they will look through the pages of this book with mixed feelings of amusement and earnest reflection upon their high school days, perhaps with the thought that these days were the happiest.

As teachers it is our earnest desire to give the best we can in the way of guidance and instruction. With the fine cooperation which we continuously experience among ourselves and from the pupils, we are sure that our efforts are not in vain.

Excerpts from a Private Diary of the Senior Class 1937-1938

September 13—We didn't thoroughly wake up this morning until we were but definitely in the clutches of deah ol' Central. And didn't we all make some pretty nifty resolutions—but then, why go into that!

September 20—The W. P. A. offered to protect the lives of Central students by directing traffic with fish-poles and flags. Nice work—if you can get it!

September 24—The Dragons sent the gridiron season off with a bang by defeating the Bluffton Pirates 13-7. This night game was played in our brand new stadium. Some of us were brave enough to try out for cheerleader.

September 29—Our annual tag day—we're sending the band to Bryan this year to help them dedicate their new stadium.

September 30—Nope, we didn't don formals and tuxes, but we sure did go to an honest-to-gosh opera, "The Prodigal Son", by De Bussey. The Chamber Opera Company was certainly appreciated by Central students. And wasn't that soprano a good looker! Quit pushin', fellas, I was here first!

October 1—Don't look now, but wasn't that the Bryan team that gave us a beating to the tune of 14-0?

October 7—Miss Howey must have thought it was her speech when everyone walked, not ran, out of the auditorium during assembly. But it was only a fire drill.

October 7—Myrtle Ross, monodramatist, entertained us tonight with some dramatic skits.

October 8—Smoly Hokes! This was as hard a knock as we ever care to have—defeat at the hands of Bowling Green, 38-7. We have nothing more to say!

October 12—Tea, mints, cookies, and lots of fun—that was the Blue Triangle Tea.

October 15—Defiance tripped us up just so nicely with an 18-14 score. That evening the Hi-Y entertained the fairer sex with a steak roast.

October 21—Mr. Bronsen De Cou told us about Ireland. "Sure, an' it must be a bit o' heaven!"

October 22—Ouch! Again the Dragons suffer punishment, this time administered by Dayton Kiser by a 13-0 talley. The band improves constantly. Nice going, Peg, John, and Bob!

October 26—Report cards—and so soon! Guess we'll be staying home more on school nights. O well, 'twas fun while it lasted!

October 29—We students tripped the light fantastic tonight at the dance sponsored by the Student Council. Many budding romances were given a boost by this event.

November 1—Is this getting to be a habit? The Toledo Libbey Cowboys trounced us 28-7. But Central does have good sportsmanship—and that's plenty!

November 2—Maybe I'll learn to never, never go to fortune tellers. Mr. Howard Higgins let us in on the ins and outs of "spirits".

November 5 and 6 — Twenty-four of us scribes combined work and fun while the poor Neil House rather got the worst of this Journalism Convention.

November 6—We came out on the short end of the score again—this time 20-7 with Findlay. Try, try, try again.

November 11—Armistice Day. The good people of Central received a welcome surprise in our 40-0 victory over Rossford.

November 12—Congratulations, Juniors! Your annual class play, "Sweet Sixteen", was a nifty.

November 17—We Seniors struggled through the Ohio State University Psychology Test. It was pathetic the way we suffered for a whole morning—just so they could figure us out.

November 18—We went to see the very picturesque Mercado's Mexican Tipica Orchestra tonight, where many feminine hearts were captured by that smooth tenor. And we must try some of those tricky dance steps, too!

November 24—Central and South traded speakers and cheer-leaders for the annual Thanksgiving assembly and pep-talk. Everybody is in tailspins of excitement!

November 25—Central and South tied 6-6 in the traditional contest. Jumping jellyfish but that was a game—and the following four-day vacation wasn't so bad, either!

November 28—Back to the same old grind.

December 1—George Elias, the "man without a country", revisited Central to tell about Lawrence in Arabia.

December 7—Grade cards again! Must they always come at such inconvenient times! Now the fireworks.

December 10—The nickelodeon furnished the music for this after-school dance sponsored by the Student Council. This evening the band presented a concert in the auditorium.

December 11—The Central quintet whitewashed Cridersville 33-20. Bravo, fellows, keep it up!

December 17—Stop, Toledo Woodward, you've broken our hearts with that 21-20 score!

December 18—At the Holly Hop, Santa Claus distributed gifts and candy to Centralites and Collegians who were honored at this school dance.

December 21—Central's five scored 19 points against Findlay, who ran up all of 23.

December 22—Nothing like a good old Christmas vacation to relieve the wear and tear of the school rustle and hustle. Have fun!

December 22—The Hi-Y escorted their "better halves" to their annual Christmas shindig.

December 23—Central bowed to Defiance by a very narrow margin, 28-27.

January 3—Back to school, starting exam studying already. But we certainly had a super duper vacation to console us in our misery.

January 6—No need to wonder why an unusual number of us "tidied up" eighth period. This after-school dance was well attended.

January 7—Isn't that mean of Fostoria to put us on the spot like that—31-23?

January 8—This is something! Central scored 26 points against Dayton Kiser's 17 points.

January 14—Much to our delight, our team scored 29 points against South's 22.

January 18—Mr. Jerold Frederic, a concert pianist, tickled the ivories of the Mehlin (our concert grand).

January 21—Guess Van Wert roped us in this time, 30-29.

January 22—This was a "pip" of a game, especially since Central came out on the longer end of a 21-20 score with Piqua.

January 21—The January class celebrated at a dinner party and a show afterwards.

January 24, 25, 26—Exams! We found out all we didn't know about things 'n' stuff. That lucky, lucky January class was exempt, too. Oh well, life is just a bowl of cherry seeds!

January 26—We bade a fond adieu to the January class. Good luck!

January 27—Bob Deikman's swingsters contributed greatly to the success of this school dance, honoring those who get out sooner than we do.

January 28—Bowling Green yielded to Central, 21-28.

January 29—Whee! Again we triumphed. This time 25-17 over Greenville.

January 31—First day of new estimate—what a day!

February 1—Just as we thought! These grade cards show that we will get to work—or else!

February 4—James Robert Gillette with an electric organ and his Chamber Orchestra furnished superlative music for this Lyceum number.

February 4—The Junior Blue Triangle started something by this Sweater Hop. Good work!

February 5—O what a beating Central took when we bowed to Newark 37 to 19!

February 7—"A friend is one who hurts when you hurt", said Superintendent Reed at the Blue Triangle Hi-Y meeting. This was something new in the way of meetings, and was highly successful.

February 11—One of the most exciting tilts we've ever seen was this one. We Dragons finally struggled through with 28 points to South's 27.

February 14—"Roses are red, violets are blue, etc." Centralites exchanged Valentines as Dan Cupid went to work in his own little way.

February 17—Holy Doughnuts! And thanks for the grand evening, Masqueraders. Your annual play, "Going On Seventeen," was a real success.

February 18—"C" Association Assembly. Congratulations, fellows, and more power to you!

February 18—We sent Kenton home in tears after defeating them 33-22.

February 19—Whoopsie! Bellefontaine bows to Central 25-36.

February 22—We honored George Washington by sleeping all morning and "gadding" all afternoon. You know, vacations are spoiling us more and more.

February 23—Central debaters out-gabbed South's.

February 25—We don't mean to brag, but we do think that the P. T. A. Vodvil and Style Show revealed that Central has some pretty good-lookers.

February 26—In the last game of the basketball season, Central tallied 29 points against Sidney's 27.

March 4—Our debaters won the district championship when they defeated Fremont.

March 4—Our cagers began the first lap of the tournament successfully by jolting Upper Sandusky 33-22.

March 5—Central's swimming team tied for third at the Toledo meet.

March 8 and 9—Some of us bold, more of us timid—lots of us tried out for the Senior Class Play. Here's hoping!

March 9—The duo pianists, Gillette and Micari, returned to Central and delighted us greatly.

March 10—Our Debate Team is one of the four remaining in the state tournament as a result of defeating Maple Heights.

March 11—Findlay's cagers squelched ours and our chances of going to Columbus by this 26-21 score.

March 15—Centralites' spelling ability was tested by the Student Council. And the wind was taken out of our sails even more by grade cards.

March 18—In the debate semi-finals we squelched Salem. Keep it up!

March 18—Nothing like a school dance, like this one, to pep up a sagging romance, don't you think?

March 19—Congratulations, Ed and Virginia! You brought great honors upon yourselves as well as Central by winning the State Debate Championship. Those trophies certainly were fetching. O yes, and thank you, Jimmy!

March 25—A haunted castle, a secret panel, hidden treasure, a beautiful mystery girl and plenty of big, black spiders to scare Patty—that's the "Tower Room Mystery", presented by the Troubadours as their annual play.

March 26—The Senior Blue Triangle and their admiring escorts attended the former's party. Informality was the keynote.

April 2—Twenty-five of us Seniors who rank high scholastically took the General Scholarship Test. Plenty terrific—and all that!

April 7—Central's singers strutted their stuff at the Kenton Eisteddfod. We won the contest by one point. That's luck!

April 28—The Annual Hi-Y Play, "Jimmy's Little Sister", was attended by the usual enthusiastic audience.

April 29—The Band, Central's pride and joy, journeyed to New Bremen to show us off.

May 6—The Senior Music Festival was very well-received and was the crowning success of a busy year for music students.

May 27—We Seniors paraded our dignity at our ultra-dignified annual play, "Pomander Walk". Naturally it was a tremendous success. (You can't blame us for being a wee bit proud of ourselves, can you?)

June 4—The University Women's Club honored the Seniors girls of the city with a tea at Shawnee Country Club. Elegance plus. Made us feel as if we are getting up in the world of affairs.

June 5—Our Baccalaureate Services were held at South High Auditorium. We are beginning to see that this graduating is pretty serious business.

June 10—Sob, sob—gosh, Central, we hate like the dickens to leave you, but we must go. We know we'll never forget the four delicious years you've given us. So long!

CLASSICS

History of January Class, 1938

TO thirty-two people, January 26 was a red letter day. Yes, we were the graduation class of January, 1938. As we look back upon our high school careers we remember or recall parties, plays, jokes on teachers and friends, and all kinds of enjoyment sprinkled, perhaps, with just a dash of studying and detention. We sincerely wish the next and succeeding classes the best of luck and hope that they may have as fine a memory of Central and their part in it as we have.

For their capable guidance and good counsel we thank Miss Reed, Miss Howey, Miss Jones, and Miss McClurg, our class supervisors.

During our senior year the role of president was competently filled by Philip Pifer. At the same time Jeanne Latson and Bob Whittington served us in the student council, where Bob was elected president.

Several members of our class were active in the dramatic field. Ann Jennings participated in our senior class play, "Annie Laurie", while Emma Jayne Hires creditably represented us in "Guess Again", the junior class play.

In practically every school club enrollment appeared the name of at least one member of our class. The Blue Triangle Club was especially well represented with only two of the fourteen girls failing to join.

Jerry Smith won recognition through his swimming ability, his reward being a letter and a membership to the "C" association.

We found several aspiring young journalists in our midst as seven of our members took active interest in the Annual and Weekly Mirror Staffs.

Our group also participated in all of the forms of music, athletics, and other extra-curricular activities at Central.

Ann Jennings carried away the much coveted Bausch-Lomb Award for science. The highest scholastic average was achieved by Arlene Hard (for which honor her name was engraved on the scholarship cup.)

As a memorial we left behind us seven Sims song slides. We hope the classes of the future will always receive as much pleasure from them as we have already received in giving them.

Senior Class History

REMEMBER that bright September morning about four years ago when there came to Central a class of meek-looking youngsters seeking entrance? But in spite of their meekness they possessed an underlying resoluteness that told the upperclassmen and teachers that this class was going to do great things. To us, the class of 1938, that day was to mark the inauguration of four years of work and happy fellowship with our teachers and fellow students. How the Seniors seemed to tower above our obscure little selves that first year and how we yearned for the time when we, too, could monopolize a few square inches on those hitherto forbidden front steps!

With none of the perplexities of geometry propositions or chemistry experiments to burden our innocent young intellects we set out with jocund hearts for that remote place, graduation. We did not ride or even hitch-hike but walked every mile of the journey. Although the going was rough at times, somehow we surmounted all obstacles and as we stand on the threshold of graduation we pause for a moment to gaze back into the distance to see what this illustrious class has accomplished.

In that year when as verdant Freshmen we approached Central in search of a high school education, we chose four people to perform the official duties of the Freshman Class. The four young swains we elected were President, Philip Pifer; Vice President, William Furnish; Secretary, Bob Whittington; Treasurer, William Ford. Our representatives in the Student Council were Gene Miller and Henry Kidder.

During our Freshman year we had as our guide, Miss Reed, to point our way. To her we wish to express our most heartfelt gratitude for her counsel.

The following September with a little algebra vaguely in our heads and some Latin, we more arrogantly returned to resume our journey.

Commencing our second mile we chose as officers: William Furnish, president; Margery Leach, vice-president; Jeanne Latson, secretary; and Gene Miller, treasurer. Members of the Sophomore Class chosen to voice our opinions in the Student Council were Rosemary Landis, Philip Pifer, Carroll Lewis, and Patterson Pepple.

With a surprising amount of timidity discarded somewhere along the way, we began to find our courses into those by paths of school life—extra-curricular activities.

Warren Widner and Carroll Lewis demonstrated the athletic ability of the class by their work on the varsity and reserve basketball squads, respectively.

Jeannette Jones, Patterson Pepple, Jane Parmenter, Helen Reese, Bob Whittington, and Patricia Snovel gave us hopes that perhaps a Richard Halliburton or a Dorothy Thompson might emerge from the ranks of the class of '38 by their literary endeavors on the Weekly Mirror.

To our Sophomore supervisor, Miss Howey, go our most sincere thanks for her advice.

At last, attaining the heights and dignity of upperclassmen, we could look down upon the Sophomores and Freshmen with traditional scorn. No longer were we to be trampled upon by our elders.

During this memorable year, Donald Schwartzkopf and Bob Swisher helped the Dragons to pursue the pigskin about the gridiron, while the Junior devotees of basketball were Darrell O'Connell, Carroll Lewis, Ray Snyder, and Harry Zapp. As members of the golf team, Bob Johnson and Allen Wiseley showed promise. Philip Pifer was the only junior to receive a letter in tennis.

Virginia Byrd, Edward Foster, Miriam Butts, Rosemary Landis, Patterson Pepple and Paul Yant rhetorically represented our class in debate.

At the football and basketball games or in assembly, four dauntless Juniors might have been seen leading lusty cheers for dear old Alma Mater. The head girl cheerleader was Edna Dotson. Carolyn Levy, Ann Talbot, and Ben Cochran were her faithful assistants.

There was no guessing about the dramatic talent in this class when the annual Junior Class play, "Guess Again" was presented. Included in the cast were William Furnish, Patterson Pepple, Dorothy Harter, Gene Miller, Emma Jayne Hires, Patricia Snovel, Henrietta Rasmus, Tom Tuttle, Henry Kidder, Margery Leach, Robert Brunk, Edna Dotson, Jeannette Jones and Julius Solomon.

We are deeply indebted to Miss Jones for her assistance throughout our Junior Year.

Seniors! A last chance to make good in our studies—a last chance to participate in all of those things we had been wanting to do. With many resolutions to study harder and to take advantage of various activities, we started on the home stretch—the best but perhaps the most difficult part of the whole journey.

The officers chosen for our Senior year were President, William Furnish; Vice-President, Henry Kidder; Secretary, Dorothy Harter; and Treasurer, David Rodgers. Representatives to the Student Council were Mary Vail, Margery Leach, Rosemary Landis, Carolyn Levy, Janie Burke, Gene Miller, Tom Tuttle, and Henrietta Rasmus.

Committees chosen by the president were as follows: Class Memorial—Jeannette Jones, David Kelker, Patricia Snovel, Robert Filliez, Tom Cavanaugh; Graduation Attire—Henrietta Rasmus, Miriam Butts, Alice Louise Parent, John Kemph, Pault Yant; Dinner Dance—Geraldine Knipp, Dorothy Harter, Janette Miller, Margery Leach, Janie Burke, Mary Vail, Robert Brunk, Tom Tuttle, Henry Kidder, Paul Steuber, Gene Miller, Allen Wiseley; Announcements—Merrill Boggs, Dorothy Walther, Ruth Augsburger; Class Play—Patterson Pepple, Dorothy Ridenour, Jane Parmenter.

Believing the tongue to be mightier than the sword, Edward Foster and Virginia Byrd waged many a wordy battle and finally carried off the state debate championship!

Senior athletes receiving letters in various sports were football—Bill Fiedler, James Dawe, Tom Cavanaugh, Paul King, Carroll Lewis, Don Kennedy, Bob Johnson, Allen Wiseley, Richard Barnett, and Richard Koch; basketball—Darrell O'Connell, Tom Cavanaugh, James Dawe, Carroll Lewis, Fred Howard, Warren Widner; swimming—David Kelker; cross country—Richard Roth, William McGee, Carl Young, John Whittington, and Bob Kemph.

Many found an outlet for excess energy and talent on the Annual and Weekly Mirror Staffs. Those on the Annual Staff were William Furnish, Rosemary Landis, Betty Samsal, Robert Brunk, Neal Kessler, Paul Heffner, Paul Yant, John Kemph, Alice Louise Parent, June Bernstein, Dorothy Ridenour, Miriam Butts, Tom Tuttle, Paul Steuber, Bonnie Sherer, Eileen Diringer, Bob Hauenstein, Henrietta Rasmus, Helen Ousley, David Rodgers, Alfred Harnishfeger, and James Cox.

Jeannette Jones, Janette Miller, Jane Parmenter, Marjorie Leach, Dorothy Harter, Helen Reese, Patricia Snovel, Joan Helmer, Joan Weaver, Merrill Boggs, Ruth Augsburger, and Geraldine Knipp contributed to the publications of the Weekly Mirror.

We, the class of 1938, wish to give our thanks to our Senior supervisors, Miss McClurg, Mr. Steiner, Miss Stiles, for their friendly counsel throughout our last year at Central.

Thus we have reached the end of our pilgrimage—no, we have not reached the end yet but have just come to the crossroads where we must decide which trail to take next.

—Betty Samsal

Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class

WE, the class of 1938 of Central High School, being of unsettled mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, to-wit:

John Kemph leaves his baton to Peggy Curtiss and Bob Vandemark.

Jerry McMaken leaves Patricia Bourk to ???

Alice Louise Parent leaves her pleasantness to everybody who needs it.

Gene Miller bequeaths his ivory-tickling knack to Mamie Chiles.

Betty Samsal leaves her brother, Don, to Central with all her sympathy.

Clara Jean Creviston leaves her friendliness to Carol Black.

Jim Cox leaves Central for the thrill of it.

In witness whereof, we, the class of 1938, hereunto place our hand and seal this tenth day of June, A. D. 1938.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared as and for their last will and testament by the above named testators, in our presence, who have, at their request, and in their presence, and in the presence of each other, signed our names as witnesses thereto.

—Miss Grace K. McClurg
—Miss Ethel Stiles
—Mr. Stanton W. Steiner

Sophomore Class History

IN the early part of September, a new group of "knowledge seekers" entered Central's portals. After a somewhat hectic but successful year as freshmen, the novices were duly enrolled as sophomores.

Dispensing with the formalities of such a high position, the sophomores fell to selecting their class officers. Those elected were Bob Brentlinger, president; Donna Gene Miller, vice-president; Mary Ellen Bidwell, secretary; and Harrison Hughes, treasurer.

In order that they may have part in the student governments, four members of the class were chosen as representatives of the sophomores in the Student Council. These representatives were Roy Blodgett, Charles Stilgenbauer, Marjorie Ripley, and Bob Richards. The sophomores were very cooperative with the Student Council and were well represented in such projects as hall patrol, courtesy monitorship, and street patrol.

The sophomores whose names appeared most often on the honor roll were Robert Heffner, Harrison Hughes, and Evelyn Castoe.

Journalism met with formidable opposition from the students who took up work on the Weekly Mirror staff. Those sophomores who delved into the mystery of writing were Dorothy Becher, Shirley Mereness, Anita Sarber, Elaine Houseworth, Virginia Lewis, Phyllis Lindenbaum, Sharlene Nesbitt, June Schulte, Lou Ann Wallace, and Beverly Walton.

To Miss Gayle Howey, acting capably as class supervisor, go the thanks of the sophomores for her kindness and ever helpful advice.

Freshmen Class History

LAST September a group of young, ambitious, but inexperienced adventurers unfurled their sails and left port on a maiden voyage for the purpose of acquiring a high school education. As usual, their more experienced shipmates paid little attention to these youthful aspirants except to exercise a little of their authority over them. This class of 1941, however, spent little time in resenting the commands of their superiors. They set themselves cheerfully to the task of getting sufficient knowledge to combat the rebuffs of the world.

It was on the morning of the thirteenth of September that this dauntless crew weighed anchor and turned their faces fearlessly toward the new horizon. Soon they found themselves in the various activities of school life.

The officers chosen were President, Walter Renz; Vice President, Richard Hill; Secretary, Edith Johnson; Treasurer, Evangel Bloomquist. Alta Jayne Clark and Robert Heil were elected to represent the Freshman Class on the Student Council.

Some turned to journalism as a medium of expressing themselves. On the Weekly Mirror staff were Philip Holstine, Robert Baker, James Ackerman, and Robert Parmenter.

Others showed dramatic ability in the Masqueraders' play, "Going On Seventeen". Included in the cast were Philip Holstine, Paul Newland, and Marilyn Claassen.

Junior High Class History

OVER half of the Junior High students came to Central for the first time last September. They were the seventh graders. The other half, the eighth graders, returned to pick up the threads of a school life still comparatively new to them.

The students settled down quickly and set about choosing their class officers. Those elected for the seventh grade were Michael Davidian, president; Anita Greenberg, vice president; Dick Zimmerman, secretary; and Richard Romaker, treasurer. Jack Williams was chosen to represent the seventh graders in the Student Council.

After the ballots were counted, the eighth graders found that they had elected as class officers John Timmerman, president; Robert Ashba, vice president; Doris Levy, secretary; and John Altstetter, treasurer. The eighth grade Student Council representative was Wesley Bayles.

If they keep up their scholastic record, these junior high students will accomplish things. Each estimate the junior high has had more names on its honor roll than any other class. It would be an endless job to name all of the honor students but those names which appeared most often were Carolyn Lutz, Gordon Misch, Harry Wright, Charles Zerbe, Gloria Haney, Emmet Murray, Margaret Ehrenfeld, Charlotte Haller, Audrey Bernstein, Richard Zimmerman, Joan Lutes, Marilyn Newcome, Robert Bowman, Mildred Cox, Natalie Gregg, Nancy Leech, Janet Roberts, Margaret Watkins, Charlotte Budd, Billy Davies, Phyllis Fockler, Jean Gerstenlauer, and Nicholas Vucovich for the seventh graders.

Those appearing on the eighth grade roll were Ruth Miller, Barbara Bowman, Sue Faudree, Anna Fruch, Mary Moore, Jean Wildermuth, Laura Mae Gnagi, Stella Lorentz, Jean Heinze, Junior Robuck, David Jenkins, Bill Reid, Patty Simmons, Doris Levy, Phyllis Tuttle, Claire Angell, Robert Ashba, Harry Fockler, Betty Hardesty, Tom Leech, Marcine Percy, Martha Roberts, Patricia Snyder, John Timmerman, Eva Archer, and Donald Leonard.

Under the capable guidance of Miss Ruth Kephart, the seventh grade supervisor, and Miss Edna McPheron, the eighth grade supervisor, the junior high had a very successful year.

Varsity Football

THE first game of the "37" season saw the Central gridders entertaining the Bluffton eleven, under the lights, by handing them a 13-7 defeat. In the second battle, a dedication game at Bryan's new stadium, the visitors from Lima were shut out 14-0. In the second night game, here, Bowling Green trampled the home team 38-7. A week later at Defiance the Red and Green bearers were downed 18-14 in a hard fought battle. Dayton Kiser then took advantage of the breaks and inflicted a 13-0 defeat on the Dragons. Toledo Libbey, in a charity game, overwhelmed Central 28-7. Returning again to the home grounds, the Lima gridders were subdued by Findlay, 20-7. On the eleventh of November the Central Dragons conquered a new team on the list, Rossford, 40-0. This ended the football season with exception of the annual South-Central game on "Turkey Day".

After playing a 6-6 tie with Bryan and then being defeated by Elida 7-6, Central's "B" squad was overwhelmed by Leipsic, 32-6. Kenton and Van Wert both imposed 6-0 defeats on the Reserve gridders, 38-0. In the last game of the season, Findlay defeated them 32-0.

The only tie, so far, in which scoring entered, was played on a very slippery field last "Turkey Day". South was first to score. An intercepted pass in the second period proved to be South's only break for a touchdown. Early in the fourth stanza, however, on a South fumble, Central was given a chance to even things up. The booted ball, which would have made the score 7-6 in favor of Central, hit the crossbar and fell back onto the field. When the final gun cracked, the nineteenth annual South-Central game had ended in a 6-6 tie.

Coaches

MR. BRENTLINGER, the envy of all his players, took over the coaching of Freshman football and basketball, and the field events in track.

Mr. Dotson, the smallest of the coaches, always held the highest hopes for victory. "Ronnie" was the track, cross country, reserve football, and Junior High basketball coach.

Mr. Hauenstein completed the arrangements for the schedules in all the sports. Every "Centralite" will remember "Stein" as having a joke in readiness for all occasions.

Mr. Kline, although a newcomer to the coaching staff, soon became very well known. "Kewpie" replaced Mr. Vogelgesang as swimming mentor.

Mr. Motter, serious but friendly, did splendid work in developing our tennis team. Under his tutelage the team enjoyed a very successful season.

Mr. Scheuerman, noted for his cheery "Hyah fellows, how's everything going?" greeting has become one of Central's best known coaches. "Cappy's" interests run to coaching the varsity basketball and golf teams.

Mr. Steward, wisecracking and ever optimistic, shouldered a very heavy responsibility. Besides being varsity football, reserve basketball, and baseball coach, "Jack" supervised intramural activities and athletic instructions.

Mr. Vogelgesang, reticent and serious minded, assisted with the reserve football team. Everyone was sorry to see "Jimmy" leave us in mid-season.

Mr. Huber and Mr. Stoner, although not coaches in reality, performed invaluable service. "Hube" took charge of the official scorer's book at home basketball games while "M. B." kept time.

Row 1—Bob Kemph, Richard Koch, Mr. Hauenstein, Bill Furnish, Tom Stump.

Managers

THIS year the football squad was very fortunate in possessing a very capable group of managers. Heading them was Richard Koch, known to all for his sunny smile. His able assistants were Tom Evans, Tom Stump, and Jim Koch. These will be back next year to carry on the arduous task of looking after football suits, jerseys, shoulder pads, balls, helmets, and a hundred other essentials for a football team.

Robert Kemph had charge of the cross country team's equipment. But this wasn't his only duty. Before every meet Bob had to place the markers, and after the meets he would have to gather them up.

As the winter season approached and basketball arrived, Bill Furnish, the head manager, took charge of the basketball equipment. Warren White and Richard Koch proved to be dependable assistants throughout the season. Jim Ackerman, well liked and efficient, was in charge of the Freshman team.

Always there is needed someone to manage managers. Upon Mr. Hauenstein's competent shoulders fell this task. His excellent choice of and check on managers assured the best care of equipment.

Varsity Basketball

THE Dragons inaugurated their 1937-1938 basketball season on December the eleventh, at South's gym by playing host to Cridersville. Don David, Carroll Lewis, Warren Widner, and Darrell O'Connell were the veterans from the previous season. Cridersville was downed 33-20. A week later at Toledo, after being ahead at all periods, the Lima team was vanquished by Woodward in the last twenty-five seconds, 21-20. Again on the road the Varsity was defeated by a strong Findlay team, 23-19. On New Year's night the team traveled to Defiance where they were shaded in an overtime, 28-27. In the second game at home, Fostoria stretched the Dragons' losing streak to four straight by subduing them 31-23. The next night at Dayton the Red and Green bearers held Kiser to seventeen points while scoring twenty-six themselves.

The first South-Central basketball game of 1938 saw "Cappy" Scheuerman's proteges end the three years supremacy held over them by South. South had won the last seven games, but this year the contest ended in a 29-22 win for Central. The next game was with Van Wert, who scored a field goal in the last few seconds of play to win 30-29. On the following night the Dragons entertained Piqua by overcoming them in a close battle, 21-20. At Bowling Green the Lima crew vanquished the home team 28-21. Central's winning streak was extended to three games when they conquered Greenville the next night 25-17. Playing against one of the strongest teams in the state, the Dragons were overwhelmed by Newark 37-19.

In the second 1938 South-Central game, Jimmy Dawe sank a foul in the overtime period to win for Central 28-27. Kenton, the next rival, went down before a 33-22 defeat. Bellefontaine, the following night, was subdued by a 36-25 score. In the last regularly scheduled contest of the season the Red and Green crew came from behind to down Sidney 29-27. The standings in wins and losses for the 1937-1938 crew stood at ten wins and six defeats.

Central continud to win by subduing the Findlay Trojans 35-22. Defiance defeated Central by the score of 25-20. Then the Dragons went to Fostoria and beat them 23-14. Central won the next game by defeating Dayton Kiser by the narrow score of 26-25. The Red and Green bearers beat their city rivals, Lima South, by the one point lead of 27-26. In their next contest Central was defeated by Van Wert 34-30. The Dragons lost their next out-of-town game to Bowling Green by the score of 25-17. Lima South came back to beat Central 20-16. Central continued their losing streak by bowing to Kenton 31-25. Bellefontaine inflicted another defeat on the Dragons by beating them 29-17. In the last game of the season Central defeated Sidney by the narrow score of 19-18.

Coach Steward will lose a few of his boys to the varsity but will have most of them back next year.

Tournament

Central showed true championship form when they defeated their first opponent, Upper Sandusky, in the District Tournament at Findlay by the score of thirty-three to twenty-two. In their semi-finals with Findlay, the Lima team had an off night in that they lost twenty-six to twenty-one. Two of the players scored eighteen of the twenty-one points. The defeat of Upper Sandusky saw "Cappy" Scheuerman coach his one hundred fiftieth win at Central. When Findlay downed them it was "Cap's" seventy-fifth defeat.

Track---1937

THE track team of 1937 was the last to use the old track. Next year's team will use the track at the new stadium.

The Dragons won one game, lost seven, and placed seventh in the district meet. In the first meet Central lost to a strong Dayton Roosevelt squad 69-58. Next Bluffton beat the Dragons by the score of 72-60. A powerful Mansfield team subdued the Red and Green bearers by the high score of 109-23. Then the Findlay Trojans marked up another score on their list by defeating Central 88½-43½. In the only triangular meet of the season the Dragons had as their opponents Sidney and Bellefontaine. Central had 23 points, Bellefontaine had 36, and Sidney won the meet by having the highest score, 97. The only meet the Dragons won during the season was the one they wanted most to win. The Central Dragons beat their city rivals, the South Tigers, by the one-sided score of 98-34. Next a strong Bellefontaine squad defeated Central, 84½-47½. In the last meet of the season a mighty Fremont team beat the Red and Green bearers by the score of 91-41. In the district meet at Toledo, Central placed seventh.

Cross Country

CROSS COUNTRY is one of the most gruelling sports in which Central has ever competed. The participants are compelled to race for two miles over all types of ground and in all kinds of weather.

Points are given for the respective positions in which the contestants finish. The runner returning first receives one point for his team; the second runner receives two points, and so on until ten have crossed the finish line. The team receiving the least number of points wins the meet.

For the first time since 1932 Central had a cross country team. This year they showed their worth by winning four out of their six meets.

In the first meet the Dragons, helping to dedicate Bryan's new stadium, were defeated by the close score of 27-28. Central came back in the next contest and downed a weak Sidney team 16-39. Continuing their winning streak, the Red and Green bearers defeated a strong Dayton Roosevelt squad 22-23. Then Central overwhelmed Piqua by the one-sided score of 18-37. The harriers then went to Toledo to compete in the district meet and managed to place seventh. At the expense of Fremont, Central won a second meet by the close score of 27-28. The Dragons broke their winning streak by losing their last contest 27-28 to a strong Greenville squad.

The team lost two meets, the first and the last, by the same scores, 27-28. The Red and Green harriers led by Coach "Ron" Dotson and managed by Bob Kemph, came through the season with a remarkable performance.

Carl Young, Central's ace miler, was elected captain at the end of the season and led the team by having the least number of points. The other runners were Bill McGee, Elton Hamilton, John Whittington, Dick Roth, Harry Schipper, and Louis Hunter. The members lost to next year's team will be Carl Young, Bill McGee, John Whittington, and Dick Roth.

Next year's meets will be held between halves of the varsity football games not only at home but at out-of-town varsity football games.

Tennis---1937

CENTRAL played its home games on the Northside playground tennis courts.

This season the Dragons did not win any games and lost five. Central was defeated twice by a strong Bluffton squad. The Dragons played the Findlay Trojans twice and lost both times. A Sidney team defeated the Red and Green bearers once. Phil Pifer and Dick Creviston were the mainstays of the tennis squad.

This year Coach Motter gave only two letters. He gave one to Phil Pifer and the other to Dick Creviston.

Golf---1937

LAST spring when "Cappy" Scheuerman issued a call for golfers the following boys enthusiastically responded: Bob Johnson, Allen Wiseley, Howard Webb, Dick Gushman, Dick Koch, Jack Jennings, Jack Mack, Henry Kidder, Paul Stueber, Harry Zurmehly, Jim Meffley, and Bruce Robinson.

Central played all of its home games on the Shawnee Country Club course. This course is said to be the best and prettiest in this part of Ohio. William Schimmel, the golf pro at Shawnee, gave much of his time in helping the boys and in developing their form.

This season the Dragons won two matches, tied one, lost six, and placed sixth in the district meet at Toledo. Central inflicted two defeats on the mighty Findlay Trojans, 12-3 and 11½-6½. Then a strong Bucyrus squad subdued Central twice by the scores of 10-2 and 7-5. The Dragons came out on the short end of the 9½-5½ score in a meet with Piqua. South, Central's friendly rival, beat the Red and Green bearers twice by the close scores of 7-5 and 6½-5½. In the last meets of the season the Dragons were defeated by Fostoria once, 9-3, and managed to tie the other Fostoria meet, 6-6.

The boys receiving their "C's" in golf were Jack Jennings, Howard Webb, Bob Johnson, Jack Mack, and Allen Wiseley.

All of the lettermen and all but one reserve, Harry Zurmehly, will be back for the 1938 season.

The Dragons went to Xenia for the first meet and lost 42-25. In the first home meet Central lost to a strong Toledo Scott squad by the score 35-31. In the district tournament at Toledo, Central tied for third place with Toledo Scott. Don Coolahan came in first in the 50 yard free style and finished second in the 100 yard free style. At Columbus, Central captured eighth place. Don Coolahan placed fourth in the 50 yard free style and fifth in the 100 yard free style.

"C" Association

OFFICERS

President	ROBERT JOHNSON
President Protem	CARROLL LEWIS
Secretary	DONALD KENNEDY
Treasurer	ALLEN WISELEY
Sergeant-at-Arms	ROBERT SANDERS

COACH THEIBERT, formerly of Central, organized the "C" Association in 1922. After a few years Mr. Scheuerman with an appointed committee revised the original constitution. This association is an honorary society for only those who are letter earners in one or more of Central's major sports; and it has five requirements: scholarship, sportsmanship, leadership, cooperation, and honor, which every member must live up to. The boys, and even girls, strive to obtain memberships in this organization. For the past few years Mr. Hauenstein has been its enthusiastic supervisor.

Those who are members but are not pictured above, include Howard Webb and Donald Schwarzkopf.

Football Lettermen

HOPING to find the most efficient defensive combination, Coach Steward substituted a great number of his squad, twenty-two of which received letters.

Four letters were awarded to boys playing at the two end positions. TOM CAVANAUGH and DON DAVID divided most of the time at left end. ENNIS WALKER and CARROLL LEWIS took care of the right end. Only Walker and David will be back next year.

The six guards, three of whom were seniors and three juniors, consisted of CARL WILLIAMS, JOE PHALEN, PAUL RADULOVICH, BOB JOHNSON, RICHARD BARNETT, and CAPTAIN PAUL KING. The latter three graduated in June.

BOB SANDERS, JIM COX, DON COOLAHAN, and DON KENNEDY, all of whom were tackles, received their football "C's". Sanders, an excellent punter, greatly strengthened the offense in tight spots. Kennedy is the only tackle of the "38" class.

ALLEN WISELEY and CUSTER KRICKENBERGER did fine jobs at the center position. Custer will be back with the squad next year.

BILL FIEDLER, a senior, did practically all of the work at the quarterback position.

Cross Country Lettermen

CARL YOUNG, the captain of this year's Cross Country, was the low point man of the team. The runner with the fewer points is rated higher than one with more.

ELTON HAMILTON and LOUIS HUNTER were the smallest boys on the team but were very fast.

JOHN WHITTINGTON, RICHARD ROTH and BILL MCGEE were runners-up to Young. All of these, including Young, graduated in June.

HARRY SCHIPPER, the seventh and last letterman, will return next year.

Basketball Lettermen

WARREN WIDNER, a veteran guard, and DARRELL O'CONNELL, a veteran forward, both seniors, were co-captains of the 1938 basketball team. Warren was a very accurate shot from the field and because of his height could take the ball off the bankboard very easily. Darrell, or "Mose" as he is called, was among the high scorers of the city. He broke very fast and shot extremely accurately.

JAMES DAWE, a senior guard, sank many shots from the center of the floor and excelled in taking the balls off the bankboard. This was Jim's first year out for basketball.

DONALD DAVID, a veteran forward who will return again next year, was one of the team's sparkplugs.

TOM CAVANAUGH, a senior, was ably assisted at the center position by brother BILL, a junior, and senior veteran CARROLL LEWIS, both lettermen.

ENNIS WALKER, junior, and CLINTON ALGUIRE, sophomore, forward and guard respectively, were the outstanding subs. You'll hear a lot more of them next year.

BOB GRAHAM and FRED HOWARD, junior and senior respectively, also did their share in helping Central win games. Fred graduated in June while Bob will return next year.

Swimming Lettermen

DON COOLAHAN was by all means the outstanding swimmer. He swam in the 40, 100, and 220 free styles, and was on the relay team.

DAVE KELKER was the breast stroke swimmer of Central's team and was also on the relay team.

BOB HARROD was the third member of the relay team. He also swam in the 40 and 100 yard free styles.

BOB STUBER, a veteran from last year, was the fourth and last member of the relay team.

Cheerleaders

SO that Central may display better sportsmanship and that the players of football and basketball teams may be encouraged, the students of this school elect eight cheerleaders, four girls and four boys, to represent them for the year. At the first football game all who wish to become cheerleaders try out and are later voted upon by the activity-ticket holders.

Because the audience will not always cooperate and because they must be out in all kinds of weather, these cheerleaders go through a great deal of hardship. At the last Thanksgiving football game our yell squad displayed nifty new red and green uniforms and also led some new cheers. Often they go with the band to out-of-town games to inspire our players.

With Edna Dotson and Junior Stimmel as our head cheerleaders this year, the squad was composed of Charles Bayles, Virginia Byrd, Rosemary Hardy, Carolyn Levy, Milfred Roush, and Gene Snyder.

In assembly Edna Dotson and Junior Stimmel, who already had their letters, were presented with certificates of award, and Carolyn Levy was awarded a letter.

Since Charles Bayles, Rosemary Hardy, Milfred Roush, Gene Snyder, and Junior Stimmel have showed such splendid work and since they have more school ahead of them, we hope to see them again next year.

G. A. A. Board

IN order that the Girls' Athletic Association may have self-government, the members of this association elect a G. A. A. board every year. This board with the aid of Miss Buchanan plans all the activities to be held during the year. Each board member, who is responsible for a particular sport, helps the supervisor decide upon girls for the class teams of her sport.

Once a year it is a G. A. A. custom to have a hike for which each participant is given a point for every mile walked.

During the G. A. A. banquet, which is held at the end of every year, the winners of class teams are awarded medals by the Girls' Physical Director.

The G. A. A. board this year consisted of President, Bonnie Sherer; Vice-President, Bonnie Jean DeVilbiss; Secretary, Dorcas Baney; Treasurer, Marian Pritchard; tennis, Marcella Roberts; basketball, Mildred Pritchard; volleyball, Marjorie Ripley; hitpin, Wanda Sims; minor sports, Thelma Von Almen; hiking, Helen Mallett; publicity, Jane Parmenter.

At the last meeting of the G. A. A., board members for the following year were elected.

Girls' Athletic Association

THE Girls' Athletic Association, more commonly known as the G. A. A., sponsors games of all kinds in which every Central High girl is invited to participate. Miss Lyda Buchanan is the supervisor of this association.

Volleyball, the first major sport of the year, is followed by tennis, deck-tennis, and shuffleboard. Then comes basketball, the favorite sport of most girls, followed by such sports as baseball and hitpin-baseball.

A girl receives a G. A. A. letter when she has earned a thousand points, and a numeral when she has five-hundred points. She is given ten points for every game played and five points for a forfeit, and one-hundred points if she makes a class team.

In assembly, letters were awarded to those Junior and Senior girls who had the required number of points.

—BETTY SNYDER

G. A. A. Winners

HAVING withstood stiff competition this year, the Sophomore class volleyball team was victorious. With Marjorie Ripley as their captain, this team displayed admirable sportsmanship. Each girl was always up and on her toes, and together they exhibited splendid cooperation. The Sophomore class team consisted of Virginia Kennedy, Betty Lassiter, Rosemary McBeth, Helen Mallett, Marcella Roberts, Erma Rutter, Mary Scheufler, Margie Surratt, Mary Vermillion, Thelma Von Almen, Mary Wagner, and Flora Webb.

After playing off a three-way tie between the Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores, the Junior class basketball team was triumphant. These Juniors guided by Marian Pritchard were Beulah Copeland, Francine Fess, Mary Floyd, Kathryn Hydaker, Betty Moyer, Fairy Page, Virginia Page, Mildred Pritchard, Wanda Sims, and Della Mae Staples.

The intra-mural volleyball tournament was won by the "Braves" composed of Marian Pritchard, captain; Eileen Diringer, Francine Fess, Mary Floyd, Mary Johnson, Lois Jones, Virginia Kennedy, Louise Miller, Erma Rehn, Bonnie Sherer, Wanda Sims, and Thelma Von Almen.

Having "trimmed" five evenly matched intra-mural basketball teams, the "Orioles" were declared champions. Members of this team were Mildred Pritchard, captain; Marie Carder, Kathleen Davis, Grace Desenberg, Alice Kemmer, Adeline McDonald, Lily Raehlin, Della Mae Staples, and Thelma Von Almen.

The winners of the minor sports were tennis, Marcella Roberts; free throw contests, Thelma Von Almen; shuffleboard, Mary Floyd and Betty Floyd; deck tennis, Helen Mallett and Marcella Roberts.

Quill and Scroll

TO promote a high standard of journalistic writing and to advance the ethics of the journalistic profession is the culminating purpose of the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, better known to Central students as the Quill and Scroll.

This honorary society was organized in April, 1926, at the University of Iowa and through the diligent efforts of Mr. Heffner, Central received a charter, the first in Ohio, in October of the same year.

Only students who are juniors or seniors, are in the upper third of their class scholastically, have accomplished superior work in some field of journalism, have been recommended by the supervisors directing the school publications, and finally have been approved by the national secretary-treasurer may realize the distinction of becoming members of this organization.

This year the following persons were initiated, pledging themselves "to aid the cause of better journalism": Tom Tuttle, Janette Miller, Bill Furnish, David Rodgers, Wanda Slaybaugh, Patricia Skinner, and Helen Ousley.

Weekly Mirror

ANOTHER year's volume of The Mirror is completed and the staff concludes its work for the year. We feel, however, that we have just started; that one more year would be all too short in which to carry out our ambitions.

Some changes we have made, it is true. Through the unceasing efforts of the advertising staff the paper has been stepped up to six pages, with three issues of eight pages and one of ten. This has given opportunity for expansion in the field of creative writing, and many new ideas in features have been tried. The sports page, efficiently directed by the first girl sports' editor, has attained greater size and news coverage than ever before. New headline styles and fewer type faces have appeared.

All this has been effected through the cooperation of the editors; the reporters; Miss Laura Jamison, our literary advisor; and Mr. Heffner, faculty business advisor.

May next year's staff continue where we stop—to search out the truth, to seek the students' viewpoint, and to attain through editorials, better conditions for all.

The Annual Mirror

THIS year, as in all previous years, the Annual is presented to you as a typical student project. This is your Annual! The entire staff has thrown itself wholeheartedly into the task of making this a yearbook which you, the students, will be proud to keep as a lasting memorial to your high school activities. From the second week in September until the Annual Mirrors were finally distributed, the staff went cheerfully and industriously about its work. Through its weeks of careful planning, soliciting advertisements, taking and retaking pictures, writing and rewriting, checking and rechecking write-ups, and the carrying out of a hundred other duties, the entire staff has striven to lay before you an accurate record of student life. The road to completion was long and hard but the staff enjoyed every step of the way.

But the most competent of staffs, however, could not have fared well without the excellent guidance of our literary advisor, Miss Bonita Jamison. Her never-failing good humor and wit have straightened out many a complicated situation, in both the Annual Office and Room 314. To Miss Stuart, too, we offer our sincerest thanks for her most efficient direction of the photography staff. Mr. Heffner's advice on all matters of policy and finance and Miss Kirk's willing supervision of the art staff have been deeply appreciated. The cooperation of the entire faculty, the administration, the student body, and the business men of Lima has been indispensable.

It is with quite pardonable pride, therefore, that we offer you this Annual. We hope that you find it worthy of preserving for many years to come.

Interclass Debate

INTERCLASS debate has been resumed after an interval of one year. The purpose of this type of debate is to interest a large number of prospective debaters and to give still others some knowledge of debate.

The teams were coached by the following members of the faculty: Mr. Steiner—freshmen; Miss Howey—sophomores; Mr. Boylan—juniors; Mrs. Pence—seniors.

There were two rounds of debate, the first round being held on October 28. The second round was held one week later on November 2. The Seniors emerged triumphant after all the votes were counted. Teachers served as judges for both rounds of debate.

Varsity Debate

AFTER the close of the interclass debates, the official debate year was underway when the following persons were chosen to represent Central: Edward Foster, Virginia Byrd, Paul Yant, Jeannette Jones, Miriam Butts, Wanda Slaybaugh, Bob Richards, Jim Wright, Marjorie Ripley, Robert Love, Bettye Tharp, Warren Jacobs, Jim Sweger.

The state debate question was: Resolved, that the several states should adopt the unicameral system of legislature.

A tournament was held at Fort Wayne on December 14, which was followed by a practice debate at Marysville on December 28.

From this date our varsity debate was continued by three of the varsity speakers. They were Virginia Byrd, Edward Foster, and Jim Sweger.

Mr. Boylan in his capacity as head debate coach and Mrs. Pence and Miss Howey constituted the coaching staff.

State Debate Championship

RESOLVED, that the several states should adopt the unicameral system of legislature, was the national debate question for 1937-1938.

After winning the district championship in which Bluffton, Fort Recovery, and Troy participated, our team was ready for interdistrict competition. This competition was provided by Lima South, and Fremont. Our team was victorious in each debate.

Lima Central was now ready to claim statewide laurels. On March 10, Virginia Byrd and Edward Foster defeated Maple Heights, a suburb of Cleveland.

At Ohio State University on March 18, after winning the semi-finals from Salem High School debate team the day before, Virginia Byrd and Edward Foster won the state debate championship from Kent. As a reward for all their brilliant orations they received a cup for winning the interdistrict contest plus another cup for being the best debate team in the state of Ohio.

Special recognition should be given to Mr. Boylan, head debate coach and Mrs. Pence, and Miss Howey, his very able assistants.

State Scholarship Test

THE scholarship tests put out by the State Department of Education have been a yearly feature at Central. After averages were carefully checked, the twenty-five highest ranking seniors, taking academic subjects, were chosen to participate.

On Saturday, April 2, seventy-six contestants from Allen County met in Room 307 to take the test. Five subjects, each counting eighty points, made up the examination. Included were English, social science, mathematics, natural science, and reading.

Of the nineteen places composing the upper twenty-five per cent to be entered in district competition, Central took eleven. Those participating were Ruth Augsburger, Fred Boop, Tom Cavanaugh, Clara Jean Creviston, James Dawe, Bill Furnish, Paul Heffner, Jeannette Jones, Neal Kessler, Rosemary Landis, Virginia Lee, Carroll Lewis, Dorcas Litherland, Robert Love, Janette Miller, Alice Parent, Don Pletcher, Betty Rasmus, Helen Reese, Dorothy Ridenour, Charles Riebesell, Betty Samsal, Tom Tuttle, Roger Valentine, and Allen Wiseley.

Student Council

FOR twelve years the Student Council, composed of eight seniors, six juniors, four sophomores, two freshmen, one eighth grader, and one seventh grader, has been a vital organization at Central. Its chief objective is to promote student responsibility and leadership.

Such organizations as the honor study hall, street patrol, and corridor patrol are under the direction of the Council.

Among the year's activities were the Who's Who Contest, an elimination spelling contest to choose Central's representative at the Northwestern School of Commerce Spelling Contest, and the circulation of a petition for the promotion of peace legislation.

Officers for the year included—for the first semester—Chairman, Bob Whittington; Chairman protempore, Tom Tuttle; Clerk, Rosemary Landis; and—for the second semester—Chairman, Tom Tuttle; Chairman protempore, Bob Harrod; Clerk, Rosemary Landis.

The patient help and guidance of Mr. Huber, the faculty advisor, and cooperation of the members effected for the Council a very successful year.

Corridor Patrol

ANYONE who frequents the halls of Central before school takes up in the morning or at noon knows that some system of curbing congestion is necessary. This is the duty of members of the Corridor Patrol, an organization sponsored by the Student Council.

At appropriate places in the halls of both Junior and Senior High these hall monitors remind students that the warning bell has rung, maintain "lines of traffic", and in general keep peace and order.

Tom Tuttle as chairman of the committee directed during the past year the activities of this organization whose services and benefits are undoubtedly realized by every student.

Honor Study Hall

SEVEN years ago, Honor Study Hall, a project of the Student Council, was formed, but a short time later it was voted down by the student body. Again, in 1933, Honor Study Hall was reorganized for the express purpose of cultivating honor among the student body of Central. If this privilege is abused by any student, he is declared unfit for remaining in Honor Study Hall and quickly returned to Study Hall 307.

Every day seven monitors or their assistants check the roll in Room 202 during seven of the school periods.

The rules which must be adhered to in Honor Study Hall are as follows: Only two students may speak at a time for three minutes, one person may leave the room at a time after permission is granted by the monitor, and no one may speak without permission.

The chairman, who has complete charge, is chosen at the beginning of the year from the qualified upper classmen.

The chairman of the Honor Study Hall Committee, who efficiently carried out her duties, was Janie Burke, assisted by Alta Jayne Clark and Betty Rasmus; while Miss Watson, the faculty advisor, aided in every way.

Following the mid-year transition of classes, Carroll Lewis was chosen monitor in the second period; Bonnie Sherer, in the fourth period; and John Robenalt, in the seventh period.

The Honor Study Hall monitors who were not included in the picture are Carroll Lewis, Betty Rasmus, John Robenalt, Bonnie Sherer, and Dorothy Walther.

Courtesy Monitors

A VERY familiar sight as one enters Central is some amicable student, seated at a table in the hall poring laboriously over a choice bit of Caesar, civics, chemistry, or the like. This individual is one of sixteen courtesy monitors whose responsibilty it is to direct about or to offer helpful information to wandering strangers and visitors that may be innocently seeking the "post office".

The Courtesy Monitors, chosen this year from members of the Honor Study Hall, were under the direction of a Student Council Committee. Each period of the day, during the past year, two students took their places in the halls, one on each side of the building. Here they faithfully executed their respective duties, proving more clearly than ever before the importance and significance of this organization.

Street Patrol

AS the postman braves the icy winds, rain, and snow, so does the Street Patrolman, protect the careless pedestrian and control the uncertain motorist, three times per day.

Although there is great danger of being crushed by two (or more) reckless drivers, these hardy men have braved all obstacles without flinching.

Since its inception a few years ago, the Street Patrol has an enviable record in which there have been no serious accidents on the four corners adjacent to Central High School.

The officers of the Street Patrol, who were elected at the beginning of the year and who helped to preserve this record at all times, were Bob Joseph, president; Virgil Mousa, vice-president; Philip Meeks, assisted by Ronald Wright, secretaries; Philip Meeks, treasurer; and James Von Almen, sergeant-at-arms; while Mr. Huber is the faculty advisor of our Street Patrol.

One day, the students of Central, on their way to school, noticed sixteen men, four on each corner, each raising and lowering a bamboo fishing pole with a small, red flag draped on the end. Although these men efficiently carried out their duties, they did not permanently keep our brave heroes from their work, for the Central Street Patrolmen were back on their jobs within a week.

Senior Orchestra

OFFICERS

Director	MR. CLARK

THE Senior Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Clark enjoyed a year of delightful and melodious toil. They played selections from the works of several of the most famed composers all through the year.

The balance in instrumentation has become much better this year because many students have begun playing such instruments as those which are not popular but are necessary to a well-balanced orchestra.

Another important principle in group playing is intonation or playing in tune. As the year progressed the players found themselves playing more and more in tune because of Mr. Clark's insistence on playing true tones. This in itself was an achievement of which our orchestra can be proud.

Any person who came into the auditorium during the first period on Monday, or Wednesday, or Friday heard Central's Senior Orchestra. If he came in at the beginning of the period, he would have heard and seen strange things; but, of course, every orchestra must tune up.

During the year the orchestra played for commencement exercises, one assembly, Parent-Teachers' Association meetings, and school plays. The members and Mr. Clark were commended many times upon their splendid playing. Central has grown more appreciative of its excellent orchestra, and this year the orchestra with Mr. Clark's able direction has proved itself worthy of our school's appreciation.

The Junior Band

OFFICERS

Director	MR. CLARK

THE Junior Band was organized in 1933 by Mr. Mark Evans. For the first few practices the noise that came from that group of young and aspiring musicians was terrific. They spent weeks learning to play the scales on their instruments. Since that time the Junior Band has grown in size until this year it has a total membership of forty-five, the largest it has ever had.

Although pupils in Senior High may join the Junior Band, it is comprised mostly of Junior High pupils. The Junior Band will accept as members pupils who own instruments and wish to play in a band. Members of the Junior Band usually become members of the Senior Band, so the organization of the Junior Band is similar to that of the Senior Band.

If you were at the Lima Stadium during the flag-raising ceremonies on Thanksgiving Day, you saw the Junior Band march down the field with the Senior Band. Also you may have noticed their attractive uniforms which consist of red overseas caps, scarlet sweaters, and white trousers.

This year the Junior Band participated in the Junior High May Festival and did a splendid piece of work.

Several years ago Mr. Clark took upon his shoulders the task of directing the Junior Band. He is to be especially congratulated for this year's work.

Members of the band not included in the picture are William Basinger, Peter Rippins, George Roberts, Robert Schugg, Dick Schun, and Donald Welker.

Girls' Glee Club

ONE of the oldest clubs at Central is the Girls' Glee, organized in 1914. Meetings are held sixth period every Wednesday, and membership is open to any Senior High girl above Freshman rank who is able to arrange her schedule. Mr. Evans directs the work.

This year, a selected number represented Central at the Kenton Eisteddfod. Selections for this were, "A Spirited Flower", by Tipton, and "Vale of Tuoni", by Sibelius. The girls took second place.

The Girls' Ensemble, also chosen from this group, and composed of Margaret Mayer, Janette Miller, Dorcas Litherland, Ruth Copeland, Betty Davis, Ruth Severns, Jane Marshall, Jane McCroba, and Alice Parent, won first place in their Eisteddfod event, with Brahms' "Lullaby" as their selection.

Officers of the Club are Jane McCroba, president; Clara Jean Creviston, vice-president; Margaret Mayer, secretary; Alice Barrington, treasurer.

ALTHOUGH there were fewer and less experienced vocalists in the club this year than last, the Boys' Glee Club, founded twenty-three years ago, enjoyed a very successful season. Every Tuesday, the sixth period, this club met in the auditorium.

During 1937-1938, the Boys' Glee Club, combined with the Senior Mixed Chorus, sang in various assemblies to the great delight of the appreciative audience.

This year at Kenton on the eighth of April, the annual eisteddfod was held, in which the Boys' Glee Club and the boys' octet participated. The club sang "My Bonnie Lass, She Smileth", while the octet, composed of Charles Peterson, George Miller, John Kemph, Richard Meffly, Howard Laman, Gene Miller, Neal Kessler, and Herbert Gefell, sang "Water Boy". The three schools which competed in this Eisteddfod, were Marion, Kenton, and Central.

Mr. Evans, always near or at the top in musical competition, should be congratulated on his moulding of the glee club into a formidable group of singers. Mamie Chiles should also be commended on her splendid job as accompanist.

A Cappella Choir

MEMBERSHIP in the A Cappella Choir, Central's leading vocal organization, is determined by tryouts held early each fall. This Club was organized in 1935 to furnish more advanced choral training.

The outstanding event of the year was the Eisteddfod in the Kenton Theater, with Kenton, Marion Harding, and Lima Central High Schools participating. Selections rendered were, "The Swing" by Pelegrin, and "Sweet and Low", by Noble Cain. The Choir won second place in the chief choral competition. The school, as a whole, won first place.

A madrigal, composed of Margaret Mayer, Ruth Severns, Alice Parent, John Kemph, and Neal Kessler, sang "Flora Gave Me Fairest Flowers", by Wilbye. This madrigal group stood in third place in the Eisteddfod.

Mr. Mark Evans is the director.

THE Junior Mixed Chorus was instituted four years ago to instruct the younger Centralites in the elegant art of singing and also to prepare them, in a few years, for the Senior High Chorus. While the seventh and eighth grade singers receive no credit for their enjoyment, the Freshmen receive one-fifth of a credit a year for singing on Mondays and Wednesdays in the sixth period. At the beginning of the year, a special chorus was chosen from the most experienced vocalists. It assembled every Monday and Friday during the Home Room period to perfect the singing of various pieces.

Although there was a slightly smaller number of singers in the Junior Chorus than last year, Mr. Clark, the director, has done a very fine piece of work during the year and should be heartily congratulated by the student body.

During the month of May, a music festival was held in which many of the members participated.

OUR band played the whole year round. During the summer the band rehearsed several times each week and gave concerts on several occasions, the most important of which was its own ice-cream social. In the autumn the band was very active. It enacted an ingenious and absorbing role at every home football game. It also played at the Bryan-Central football game. During the football season the band worked the hardest. Members practiced in the mornings before school usually at the college field.

During the winter the band played concert music and gave a concert in December. In the spring the band turned its attention to marching. It played and marched at a festival in Fremont, the peony festival in Van Wert, and its own festival held in Lima. One of the biggest events of the year was the festival sponsored by the Northwestern Ohio Festival Association. Besides playing for these things, the band marched in numerous parades throughout the year.

This year a new idea was initiated by the band; it was lead by three drum-majors, a senior drum-major and two underclassmen. This year the underclass drum-majors were Peggy Curtiss and Bob Vandemark; the senior drum-major was John Kemph.

The four young gentlemen who carried the colors became essential to the band this year. They helped to form some of the difficult formations seen by all on the football field.

Mr. C. O. Guy, business manager of the band, attends to all financial matters and is in charge of the uniforms.

Our director, Mr. Clark, is to be congratulated upon an especially excellent year.

IN a fresh and amusing comedy bubbling over with youthful trials and tribulations and appropriately named "Sweet Sixteen", the Junior Class presented its annual play November 12.

"Pat" Patton is the youngest member of a large family, who look upon him with the intolerance usually shown toward the "baby" of the family. "Pat" resents this attitude, believing that he is a budding electrical genius. He sincerely believes that if given a chance he will make a success of his invention —a radio transmitter with which he expects to get foreign broadcasting.

Ruthie Goddard, a young neighbor, has decided that "Pat" will be her future husband. In view of this fact she makes the Patton domicile practically her home, following "Pat" wherever he goes, prying into the family skeleton, carrying gossip, and telling tales until the whole neighborhood is in an uproar.

Triumphing over his family's prejudices, "Pat" finally perfects his invention and Ruthie unwittingly untangles many misunderstandings.

Mrs. Rhonemus and the cast are to be congratulated on their splendid production.

IN a delightful comedy of adolescence, the Masqueraders presented its annual play, "Going On Seventeen", February 17.

The plot revolves around Buddy Carhart and his two henchmen, Paul and Shrimpie. Together they have launched a magazine, "The Harrisville Town Topics", thanks to the generosity of Mr. Carhart, who furnished the hand press. The boys are, naturally, confirmed women haters; that is, until Buddy's older sister Florence is visited for the summer by her school chum, Joan and Joan's younger sister, Lillums. Lillums is a sixteen-year-old siren and quickly severs the ties binding the three boys. Expertly she plays one boy against the other until havoc results.

Meantime, Mr. Carhart, a trusted employee of the town's bank, becomes involved in a serious shortage. Buddy takes it upon himself to track down the real culprit, which he finally succeeds in doing after many misadventures. In the end "The Harrisville Town Topics" scores a tremendous scoop and the three boys again unite against fickle womanhood.

The cast, under the able direction of Miss Stuart, put on a fine performance for a very appreciative audience.

IN a clever mystery farce of three acts, the Troubadourian Club presented its annual play, March 25.

The play revolves around the "tower room" of an old house situated in the Virginia Mountains overlooking the Potomac River. The house was built before the Civil War days and resembled a castle of the early centuries. During the Civil War, the owner had hidden a bag of gold in the "tower room" to keep the invading Confederate armies from confiscating it. When he died, the secret of its hiding place died with him, the only clue being "look for the spider."

Jack Chalice and his sister Kate inherit this old house. As they investigate the "tower room", they find Myra Vernon. Immediately Myra persuades them to help her search for the gold which is hers by inheritance. After a series of strange and weird experiences, they succeed in finding the hidden treasure.

THE Senior Class presented, as its annual play, "Pomander Walk" by Louis N. Parker on May 27.

Sir Peter is a genial old Admiral who extends gracious hospitality to all comers to Pomander Walk. The story is told thus:

"Five little houses by the waterside
Five little gardens, only eight feet wide
And here's the river singing to the sea.
Here the gazebo stands. What's that? you ask—
A kind of summer house arranged to mask
Strange goings-on, strange plottings and contrivings,
Quarrels, conciliations, wooings, wivings.

It is summer, and the month is June
When roses bloom, birds are all atune;
Morning and midday, sunset and a moon!
In these surroundings placid and genteel,
Place ordinary folk who think and feel,
Let them live out their lives and do and say
Just what they like: and there you have the play."

OFFICERS

President	ALICE BARRINGTON
Vice-President	ARLINE COPELAND
Secretary-Treasurer	ARLENE HARD and BONNIE SHERER
Press Correspondent	BETTIE HOOVER
Sergeant-at-Arms	DOROTHY MCCLAIN

ON the first and third Wednesdays of every school month at 3:10 P. M. a group of students gather in room 302. This group is known as the Central High School Commercial Club.

The purpose of this organization is to bring the commercial students into a closer contact with the business world. This is accomplished, not in a dry, uninteresting fashion, but by programs full of life and energy.

Speaking in general terms the programs are made up of contests, trips, speeches, and playlets. However, to be more specific this year's program included, among other things, the following—trips to the Lima Westinghouse Plant and The Lima News; sales talks by members of the first semester salesmanship class; contests in spelling and typewriting; short speeches by pupils; a typing demonstration by Grace Phalen, world's amateur champion typist; and a playlet on the efficient and inefficient secretary.

Membership requirements are simple, all one has to do is take one commercial subject and come to Room 302 any night the club meets.

Mr. DeLong's supervision and suggestions have been greatly appreciated by all connected with the club.

Library Club

THE Library Club, which is sponsored by Miss Reilly, the school librarian, was organized in the unforgettable days of 1931. It is the purpose of the Library Club to educate and train the prospective librarians in all the sciences of book lore. Only those who have a real interest in the library work are considered or made members of the club.

The members of the club met every other week in the school library under the direction of Miss Reilly, who taught these students the fundamentals of library work including desk work, the charging, discharging, binding, mending, and the Dewey Decimal System of cataloging and shelving books.

The members of the club look forward to and greatly enjoyed a Christmas party which was given in the school library. At one of the meetings Miss Reilly gave the girls a test on the different classifications of books.

The Library Club has been most beneficial to everyone, both students and teachers. And we students of Central High School want to thank the members of the Library Club for their outstanding work.

THE Senate, founded in 1916 for students interested in current topics, debate, and parliamentary procedure, is the oldest club in Central. Our honorable assistant principal, Senator Romaker, inaugurated the present system of general debate, which allows a freer discussion than does formal debate. The Senate Club is modeled as closely as possible after the United States Senate and uses Robert's Rules of Order as its authority.

Topics, for the weekly floor discussion, are chosen by a majority vote one week in advance. Some of the more important topics discussed this last year were:

Resolved that the United States give financial aid to China,

Resolved that the penal institutions be reformed,

Resolved that the United States withdraw from the "Far Eastern War Zone", and

Resolved that the United States adopt the British system of radio control.

Two political parties were formed this year. They were the Progressives and the Liberalists. Senator Boggs was elected to guide the destiny of the Progressives and Senator Foster that of the Liberalists. Several Senators remained "independent".

Senators who later became members and are not in the above picture are Don Ammon, Orrie Barr, Bud Hoover, Robert Love, Harold McClain, and Robert Wagner.

Senator Taylor, our able faculty advisor, helped the Senate to present a most enjoyable and successful program this year.

Industrial Arts Club

OFFICERS

President	CARL STEEN
Vice-President	EDWARD HERBST
Secretary	WILLIAM HAY

SINCE the membership is limited, many Junior High students in the eighth grade look forward to joining the Industrial Arts Club. This club was found in 1922, anno domini. It has been called the Radio Club, Boat Club, and Airplane Club. In 1932 the name, The Industrial Arts Club of Central High School, was bestowed upon the group; and in 1934 it was granted a charter by the Student Council.

The twenty-eight members worked on individual projects which suited their fancies and hankerings. Those who were behind in class work used club period to catch up. They also repaired toys for Christmas. Several trips were taken to commercial establishments, one of them being the Locomotive works.

The purpose of this club, of course, is to study and construct further in Industrial Arts than is taught in the short classroom period. This club has been a great aid to those thinking seriously of continuing in this kind of work as a vocation.

Those not in the above picture are Bill Werr, Don Deshler, Robert Harruff, Edward Herbst, Donald Maus, and Donald Staup.

The club had a new faculty advisor this year, Mr. L. J. Kline. One might find him in the Junior High Work Shop on Wednesday club period patiently helping the club in its art. I believe we will hear much more of the members of this club and its advisor next year.

Thespian Club

BECAUSE the younger Centralites wanted some way to display their histrionic art, the Thespian Club was organized under the capable direction of Miss Lippincott.

During the year at the bi-monthly meetings on amateur hour was featured and the following plays were given: "Rip Van Winkle", "The Plaid Scarf", "Danger at the Door", "The Old Sleuth", "Miss Burney at Court", "Pinched", "The Knave of Hearts", "The Knife", "That Awful Letter", and "Babbitt's Boy".

The club met within the spacious walls of 307. The dramatic students showed exceptional talent and will certainly qualify for the Masquerader or Troubadourian Clubs in the years to come.

Masqueraders' Club

OFFICERS

President	JERRY CLARK
Vice-President	DONNA GENE MILLER
Secretary	JOE SELLS
Treasurer	ZELMA SANDIFER

THE Masqueraders' Club, which was organized in 1924, has been rapidly growing in popularity. The aim of the club is to further interest in dramatics, and under the excellent supervision of Miss Stuart has been able to do this. The club is composed of sophomores and freshmen who have tried out at the beginning of the year. If the students who try-out show acting ability, they are made members of the club.

At each of the bi-monthly meetings of the organization a one-act play, under the direction of one of the members, is sponsored. In this way everyone is given the chance to display his talent. The meetings were planned by Ann Blattenberg, Jerry Clark, Virginia Lewis, Bernita White, Mary Mumaugh, Betty Creps, Jean Hilgendorf, Virginia Kennedy, Marjorie Ripley, and Elaine Houseworth.

The annual Masqueraders' play is one of the outstanding events of the school year. This year the play, which was "Going On Seventeen", was chosen by a committee consisting of Shirley Mereness, Jerry Clark, and Mary Mumaugh.

Troubadourian Club

A CLUB of junior and senior students is the Troubadourian Dramatic Club, which meets on the first and third Wednesdays in the Auditorium.

The Club this year was composed of fifty-five members, four of whom graduated in the January class.

Each member participated in a play which was directed by members selected as program chairmen.

There were eleven meetings; at seven, plays were given. They were "Poor Aubrey", "Soft Shoulders", "Double Crossed", "Prose Preferred", "First Dress Suit", "Frank and Erni", and "This Way Out". Don Pletcher was the stage manager.

The annual play, "Tower Room Mystery", was presented March 25.

Mrs. Rhonemus, advisor of the club, worked diligently throughout the year and was largely responsible for the success of the club.

Foreign Correspondence Club

WITH the increasing necessity for amicable relations among nations, students find it more essential to understand the people of other lands. To fulfill this need of the students of Central the Foreign Correspondence Club continues its activities from year to year. The purpose of the club is to give first-hand information to its members through correspondence with foreign boys and girls.

The club was organized five years ago by a group interested along these lines, and is now under the direction of Miss Messimore.

The meetings of this year were characterized by movies, travelogues, the reading of letters, and discussion of customs of other countries.

Letters were received from England, Finland, Scotland, Germany, Denmark, and other countries.

Social Dancing Club

BECAUSE the students of Central High wanted a club in which they could learn to dance, the Social Dancing Club was organized four years ago under the supervision of Miss McRitchie. This club offered an opportunity for everyone to have a good time and to make new friends.

This year the club was composed of sixty-eight terpsichoreans, most of whom were from the seventh and eighth grades. Because of the great number of members, this club was divided into two groups. Every week this club met in the Girls' Junior High Gym under the supervision of Miss Evans and Mr. Ulrich.

The members who were not present at the time the club picture was taken are Janet Fritz, Betty Gilroy, Betty Hughes, Betty Lewis, Robert Purnell, Israel Rachlin, Martha Rower, Doris Steger, Pauline Vandemark, and Lowell Wood.

Stage Club

OFFICERS

Stage Manager	DONALD PLETCHER
Assistant Stage Manager	WARREN WHITE
Secretary	EUGENE SPEES
Advisors	MR. STEINER and MR. SMITH

EVERY Wednesday during club period the members of the Stage Club met and discussed the problems concerning the technicalities of the stage. The meetings were conducted formally with the stage manager usually presiding.

This is a group of industrious young men. They are in complete charge of the stage, and that is one of the biggest tasks in "deah" old Central. They not only work during school hours but after school and sometimes far into the night. Some of them are present whenever the stage is used, and the stage is used many times in a week.

We are fortunate in having such a splendid organization of this nature in our school. The Stage Club has finished a year of effective, constructive work.

Members of the Stage Club not included in the picture are Eugene Griffith and Virgil Gulker.

Camera Club

Treasurer	DON LEHMAN

WITH the advent of photography some years ago, several amateur photographers formed a club. This club has had many enthusiastic newcomers in these past few years. In fact, this year the club was divided into two parts, one meeting in the physics laboratory one week; and the other group, the next week.

Methods of developing and printing were fully discussed. They also undertook the task of making some developer, as well as analyzing different types of cameras.

A high point of the year was that of a Lima News' photographer who took the club's pictures and placed them in a Sunday edition of the Lima News. Also a visit to Adon studios was made. There the amateurs were confronted with the commercial aspect of photography. Members of this club who did not have their pictures taken are Robert Farsht, Joe Hackley, Sam Homan, James Reed, and Danny Sullivan.

Mr. Huber, able faculty advisor, explained to the amateurish amateurs the theory of photography, exposure, printing, enlarging, and all other phases so well known to an expert. Mr. Huber has won several prizes with his excellent photographs.

Junior Hi-Y

THE purpose of the Central Junior Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

At the first of the year a treasure hunt and weiner roast were held. After the election of officers and initiation of members a round table discussion was held with each member taking part.

The club was very fortunate in having Mr. Joe Shaffer, who gave an illustrated lecture on his recent trip to Greece.

The Junior Hi-Y Club were guests of the joint Senior Hi-Y, Blue Triangle meeting at which Mr. Reed, superintendent of the Lima Schools, was the speaker.

The Ohio Hi-Y Conference was held in Toledo. Clayton Amspaugh and Bob Huffer, who represented the club, gave interesting accounts of their visit.

The club enjoyed several basketball games with South Junior Hi-Y, motion pictures, a "Professor Quiz" contest, fun nights; and a very amusing melodrama given by members of the club.

Those members not present in the picture are Orren Barr, Bob Boose, Dan Easton, Robert Farsht, Arnold Greenburg, Bob Huffer, John Hughes, Don Miller, and Lester Devine.

Through these meetings and with the help of Mr. Lutman, the advisor, the Junior Hi-Y succeeded quite admirably in its purpose.

Senior Hi-Y

THE Senior Hi-Y Club consisted of fifty junior and senior boys. The club this year was even larger in membership than in past years. These fellows ally themselves with worldwide fellowship of Hi-Y by accepting the purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character".

The club meetings were held every Monday night at the "Y". The club proved of service to the school by issuing football programs at all home games.

Much valuable and interesting information was obtained from various speakers, among whom were Miss Howey, who spoke of her recent trip to Japan; Kermit Westbay, whose subject was "Methods of the Federal Investigation Department"; and Sam Kamen and J. S. Ayers, two very interesting speakers whose subject was "A Vocation and How to Choose It".

The outstanding program of the year was the joint meeting of the Blue Triangle and Hi-Y clubs of the city. Mr. J. McLean Reed, speaker of the evening, made many complimentary remarks regarding the aims and ambitions of the clubs.

The main events of the year's activities were the steak roast at Fort Amanda, the Older Boys' Conference at Toledo, and the Christmas dance.

With the able guidance of Mr. Larrick, club advisor, and Mr. Monbeck, boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., the organization enjoyed a most successful year.

As a finale to the year's work the club presented a play on April 29, in Senior assembly.

Junior Blue Triangle

IN 1921 the Blue Triangle, also known as the Girl Reserves of the Y. W. C. A., was organized. Three years ago it was necessary to divide the group into two sections because of the large membership of the club. The Senior Blue Triangle is for Senior and Junior girls; the Junior Blue Triangle, Sophomore and Freshman girls. "To face life squarely and to find and give the best" is the motto of this young group which is doing such a fine work.

The girls met every second and fourth Thursday of the month. Among the activities this year the most prominent were filling baskets for the needy at Thanksgiving and Christmas time, a "sweater hop", a spring dance, the Faculty tea, a discussion of the Race problem, and other social events including a joint meeting as guests of the Senior Blue Trangle and Hi-Y at which meeting Mr. J. McLean Reed, our superintendent, was the speaker.

Betty Creps, president; Zelma Sandifer, vice-president; Joan Evans, secretary; and Mary Mumaugh, treasurer, filled the offices very capably this year.

With the assistance of Misses Mary Belle Linnell and Phyllis Mendenhall, faculty advisors, the organization had a very successful year.

Senior Blue Triangle

DURING the past year, character building was the theme of the Senior Blue Triangle Club, composed of Junior and Senior girls.

An impressive recognition service; a panel discussion on peace; a play depicting present social conditions; a Christmas party for underprivileged children; several social events; a joint meeting with the Hi-Y Clubs at which Mr. J. McLean Reed, our new superintendent of schools, was the speaker were among the year's activities.

The cooperation of the members and the supervision and guidance of Miss Mary Watson, Miss Elizabeth Hill, and Miss Doris Keller helped to effect unusual success for the club.

THE Siempre Amigas and Siempre Fidelis Clubs, organized Girl Reserve Clubs of the Y. W. C. A., are two of the most successful in promoting friendship among girls of high school age. They try to meet the needs of the younger girl for sociability and personal and social adjustments in the realms of family relations, work, religion, and boy and girl relationships.

Regular meetings are held every other Tuesday of the month after school at the Y. W. C. A. These meetings have been inspirational, educational, social, and recreational. To celebrate the special seasons of the year, coed parties have been sponsored by the older girls' club.

Our slogan "to face life squarely" and "to find and give the best" reflects the ideals toward which each club member is striving. The clubs have been supervised by Mrs. Robert Martin and Miss Doris Keller, Girl Reserve secretary.

A story is being told of a reply by a Scotch student to a question in an examination paper. "If twenty men reap a field in eight hours," ran the question, "how long will it take fifteen men to reap the same field?" The student thought long and carefully before setting down the answer, and when he handed in his paper this is how it read: "The field, having been reaped by twenty men, could not be reaped a second time by the fifteen men."

When Henry K. was quite young, he could often be found on Sunday mornings where all dutiful children should be found — in Sunday School. One bright Sunday morning the superintendent repeated to the children the text, "Arise, and take the young child and its mother, and flee into Egpyt."

Then the superintendent showed a large picture illustrating this text in bright colors.

"Isn't this picture fine," he asked, "Here is the mother.

Here is the child. There's Egypt in the distance. Isn't it fine?"

But dear little Henry was disappointed and he piped out:

"Teacher, where's the flea?"

A man who had bought a country estate was entertaining a house party which included a famous geologist. Pointing to an enormous rock in the distance, he said, "That's 70,003 years old."

"You're very precise," the geologist said.

"O, I know I'm right!" his host replied. "A geologist was here three years ago, and he said then it was 70,000 years old."

Critical teacher: "You've made your hero too hot headed I'm afraid."

Jeannette J.: "How do you mean?"

Teacher: "Well, he has a lantern jaw to begin with. And so his whole face lit up! His cheeks flamed, he gave a burning glance, and then, blazing with wrath and boiling with rage, he administered a scorching rebuke."

A Scotchman in a penny arcade came across a punching-bag machine with a notice on it to the effect that if one hit the bag hard enough the penny would be returned.

Friends found him two hours later, lying under the machine unconscious with both arms broken.

"Why, that's a watch dog," replied Willis.

"Oh, I see," remarked Bob, "he is winding himself up now."

The haughty Senior girl sniffed disdainfully as the tiny Freshman cut in. "And just why did you have to cut in when I was dancing?" she inquired hastily.

The Freshman hung his head and said shamefully, "I'm sorry, Ma'am, but I'm just a poor college boy working my way through school, and your partner was waving a five dollar bill at me."
